local Red Cross fund was swelled by $4000 as result of contributions ranging from $1 to $500. The week brought in several large donations, particularly from sugar companies and plantations. With the $15.547 on hand from last week the total since the drive began is now $19.532.

The returns from the boxes various hotels were only $23.17, including seven cents of money which cannot be accepted in Hawaii. This proves that the average person at seeing a box in a hotel is not particularly interested in the cause. The committee hopes that it will not be presented with any coins which can ! only serve as souvenirs.
